

US Army Corps of Engineers®

Detroit River – Pointe Mouille CDF

Project Features

- Detroit River - Pointe Mouille CDF is an in-lake island facility in Rockwood, MI located on the northwest corner of Lake Erie at the mouth of the Huron River.
- Navigation Projects Served: Detroit River and Rouge River
- The CDF was constructed in 1981 under authority from Section 123 and has more than ten years of capacity remaining.
- Pointe Mouille CDF has an area of 700 acres, has a total capacity of 18,000,000 cubic yards, and receives about 343,700 cubic yards annually.
- The CDF is owned by the Michigan Department of Natural Resources and is operated by the US Army Corps of Engineers.

Beneficial Use Information

- The material in this site has a mixed grain size.
- Direct transportation access to the CDF is available via road and water.
- The US Army Corps of Engineers has the authority to remove or sell material from this CDF. Interested parties can contact Mr. Steven Thompson at Steven.W.Thompson@usace.army.mil.

Post Closure Use

- The intended post closure use of Detroit River - Pointe Mouille CDF is intended for a wildlife/marsh area.